WITNESSETH

WHEREAS, the City does not currently have a building inspector and is desirous of making the most cost effective use of tax dollars for building inspection services; and

WHEREAS, the County has employed a qualified building inspector equipped with the necessary tools and vehicle available to provide these services; and

WHEREAS, the City and the County have determined that it is mutually advantageous to each party to enter into this Agreement;

NOW THEREFORE, in compliance with and pursuant to the terms and provisions of the Interlocal Cooperation Act, the parties hereby agree as follows:

- 3.02 The City agrees that the County will have the right to all building inspection fees paid for any building inspection performed by the building inspector within the City.
- 3.03 The County agrees that if the costs of performing this agreement are greater than the fees generated, the County will be solely liable for the cost. The parties agree that the City's only financial obligation under this agreement is to provide all building inspection fees for inspections performed in the City to the County.

SECTION FOUR AUTHORITY AND EMPLOYMENT STATUS

- 4.01 The building inspector employed by the County shall be considered a County employee and not an employee of the City.
